

Election Commission of India	Article 324	Superintendence, direction and control of elections is vested in the Commission for the following:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • President • Vice President • Lok Sabha Members • Rajya Sabha Members 	Chief Election Commissioner and two Election Commissioners
National Commission for Scheduled Castes	Article 338	Socio-economic Development of Scheduled Castes, investigate matters relating to safeguards provided to Scheduled Castes, inquire into specific complaints	Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and three other members
National Commission for Scheduled Tribes	Article 338A	Socio-economic Development of Scheduled Tribes, investigate matters relating to safeguards provided to Scheduled Tribes, inquire into specific complaints	Chairperson, Vice Chairperson and three other members
Backward Class Commission- I (Kaka Kalelkar Commission)	Article 340	Investigate the conditions of socially and educationally backward classes
Backward Class Commission- II (Mandal Commission)	Article 340	Investigate the conditions of socially and educationally backward classes
Commission on Official language	Article 344	Recommends President with respect to Progressive use of Hindi and restriction on the use of English for the official purposes. Form of Numerals to be used and Language to be used in Supreme Court, High Courts and for Acts, Bills etc.	Chairman and members representing different languages specified in Eighth Schedule

CONCLUSION

The need for a non-partisan, professional organization to focus on areas of national importance such as national planning, optimum resource management, co-ordination, social justice and monitoring of employment is crucial for an ambitious nation. Constitutional Commissions are uniquely positioned and fully equipped to play a pivotal role and to simultaneously perform the role of a facilitator and an advisor to the nation on the above issues including Justice and Social development. This is also in line with International Experience

Sh. Raj Singh Niranjana is an author & Law officer. He can be reached at raj.singh.niranjana@gmail.com.*